Dardanup Heritage Collective Books Selling Fast

Two books have recently been published by the Dardanup Heritage Collective. "Women of Charlotte St & Beyond" presents the stories of eight remarkable women of Dardanup who played a significant part in the development of the town and its surrounds: Eliza Little, Mary Jane O'Neill, Ellen Skipworth, Mary Ann Cleary, Catherine Prout, Mary Holland, Frances Craig and June Craig.

"Adventures on the Ferguson" is a collection of eight newspaper articles, originally printed in the Bunbury Herald in 1908, humorously recounting a journey from Bunbury through the Ferguson Valley in 1908. The central character is part-fiction but the people he meets along the way were real, early settlers on the Ferguson River. Woven into the main story are a set of tall tales, rambling implausible stories told and retold for entertainment. This collection gives modern readers a rare window into the past of this cherished region.

Both books are about 50 pages long and available for $20 each plus postage of $3.80 for 2 books, $2.60 for 1 book.

Please email: dardanupheritagecollective@gmail.com or phone Jenny Trigwell on 97280639 for local collection. Payments can be made to: The Dardanup Heritage Collective BSB: 633 000 A/C: 182 470 856

MEDIA RELEASE

Collie-Preston Kids turn the page for the 2023 Premier's Reading Challenge

14/06/2023

- Premier's Reading Challenge launched for 2023
- Challenge to develop students' literacy skills and fuel their imagination
- Weekly prizes on offer to encourage student participation

The WA Government has launched the Premier's Reading Challenge, encouraging young Western Australians to get reading. The challenge will run until Friday 8 September and is open to all students from Kindergarten to Year 10.

Students participating in the challenge must read at least 12 books over the six-month period to be in the running to win the major prizes.

Prizes, including a family holiday for the winner in each category, will be available for students who read the most books, as well as those who have shown a significant improvement in their reading habits.

Weekly prizes are also on offer. Students can go into the draw by logging a book per week.

This year's theme is 'Reading can take you anywhere', showcasing to students that a love of reading can open the door to a world of opportunities.

Books can be read across all formats, including audiobooks, Braille and books in language, and in all genres, including comics and graphic novels.

Visit the Premier's Reading Challenge website at www.premiersreadingchallenge.wa.edu.au to register, search over 7,000 book titles and log books read.

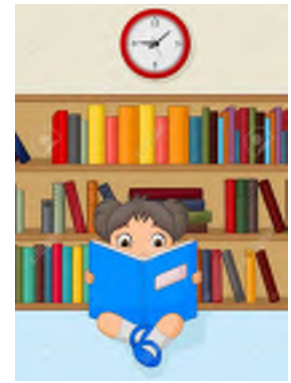

Comments attributed to Jodie Hanns MLA – Member for Collie-Preston:

"As a former teacher and as a Mum, I know how important it is for children to learn to read. Reading is vital to a child's development and helps children develop their academic, social and emotional skills.

"One of my own treasured memories is reading stories with my kids. There is nothing like the joy on a child's face as they see the world open up around them through the magic of books.

"Every year, to celebrate the Premier's Reading Challenge and encourage local children to read, I purchase a book for each primary school in Collie-Preston to add to their library and classroom collections."

Playgroup

The last month has been a great time together at Playgroup sharing in celebrations for Family Day & Birthdays.

However, as the rain & cold weather has almost settled in for this winter so has the sickness with what feels like a rotation of families fighting the flu.

With two weeks to go before holidays we will be keeping our fingers crossed for some sunshine on Wednesday mornings. If you're free come on down for a coffee and a play!

Dardanup Heritage Collective – Summary of What We Have Been Up To:-

The 100 year celebration on 13 May - the display and slide show were well received and busy over the day. With the five new information boards, we have a good overview of Dardanup's history for display. I left everything up during the Gatsby Ball and guests continued to read them.

Terri Gibbs, myself, Jill Cross, Mike Hall, Julie Hazelden and Kerry Tyrrell volunteered at the Family History Expo on 27 May at the Bunbury Museum.

Tom Garbelini and John Guimelli have worked out a formula to collect Italian family histories. To be compiled into a book.

Danny Harris is working with Darren Foster and the Lions to bring together and display military enlistees associated with Dardanup.

Oral Histories: Terri Gibbs has completed recordings with: Ken Gardiner, Sheila Butcher and Norm Flynn (needs some editing). Jenny Trigwell, John Guimelli and Tom Garbelini completed recording with Joe Italiano and Peter Depiazzi. Jenny Trigwell completed a recording with Kevin Keeley

Jenny Trigwell is researching and writing the history of "The Dell" and the Palmer family. To go on the web site.

Lyn Tyler has been researching "Taunton Vale" and so far has written stories and has some photos for three owners: the Rich, Reynolds and Martin families. Lyn will continue her research to bring the story up to the present day. In due course these will be placed on the web site.

- Jenny Golding also recently provided me with the story of Herbert San Quay, a Chinese man who lived with his family at Dardanup and worked for farmers in the area. This story will eventually go onto the web site.

Terri Gibbs has unearthed some receipts relating to Catherine Prout's store from the 1920s. These belonged to W G Armstrong and had been left with Ken and Carol Gardiner.

Terri was given a copy of Norm Flynn's transcription of Dan Slattery's Coolgardie diary from 1895 for our Archive.

Marg Vinci and Terri Gibbs have sent me photos and information about the Catholic Precinct and Angela Costello.

Destinations WA vignette regarding the heritage trail aired on TV and is available online; Destination WA

The Shire advised we can access the office space at Little St.

We have sold about 110 books – see info this edition
We have been invited to display the "Women" information boards at the Shire of Dardanup's "This One Thing" evening focusing on migrant experiences - 22 - 24 June at Dardy Hall.

We have been invited to set up a display at the Bunbury Museum and Heritage Centre from mid-October to the end of November.

Mike Hall and I spent quite some time reviewing the Local Heritage Survey and picked up numerous errors which have been submitted to the Shire.

Feel free to attend any of our monthly meetings – you would be most welcome.

Proper old fashioned service guaranteed

July is the second half of the Noongar season Makuru.

Traditionally a time of frequent storms, making this one of the wettest and coldest months of the year in our region. My suggestion is stay inside, grab a cup of something warm and get stuck into reading seed catalogues, magazines and recipe books.

We have passed the winter solstice (our shortest day) and despite the days beginning to lengthen, growth in our gardens will be slow during our coldest months. It gives us a chance to catch our breath and plan for a summer of abundance. There are some great options for purchasing seeds within WA, including Urban Revolution, Thrive Sustainability, Harvest Me Seeds and Yilgarn seeds. Benefits of buying from these small businesses include fresh seeds that are adapted to our Climate, greater variety and no nasty fumigates/coatings.

Garden maintenance is very much 'tidy as you go'. Keep an eye out for caterpillars, slugs and snails, they enjoy their greens even more than we do! When you are out harvesting a few things, take a few minutes to remove any old or yellowing leaves on Brassicas, Silverbeet and Celery. Add them to the Compost or feed them to your Chooks. The 'girls' are in need of their greens this time of year and the leafy greens will help give the yolks a lovely naturally dark yellow colour.

It is also a great time to give your garden tools some 'love'. Clean & sharpen blades, sand & oil your handles and fix any damage before storing them out of the weather until spring.

Garden hygiene is important, especially as we begin our winter maintenance & pruning. Fig trees and Grapevines can be pruned now and remove any yellow or dead ferns from your asparagus patch. Now is the time to think about controlling fungal and bacterial issues. If you had issues with leaf curl, rust or brown rot on your fruit trees last season, you will need to be proactive now. Remove any mummified fruits and dispose of them in the rubbish bin, strip any remaining leaves and spray dormant trees with Lime sulphur before bud burst. Be sure to read labels on all products and follow their required safety procedures. Note: Just because remedies are deemed 'natural' does not mean they can't be harmful if used incorrectly.

At a pinch, if your garden is in a sheltered position, you may be able to plant fast cropping varieties such as asian greens, english spinach, lettuce, and radish. Everything else will just sit in the ground waiting for the warmer weather to arrive or become food for the slugs and snails.

Honestly, with the cold soil you are best off making the most of what is already growing. There is often more in the garden to eat than we realise. Why not make use of the small broccoli leaves and stalks in soups, finely slice the silverbeet stems and sauté them with your onions before adding to your curry or pinch out the tops of your broad beans and add them to your stirfries. Parsley stalks are also a great substitute for celery when making your soffritto.

It is best to wait until August, but if you are really keen to plant in July....

Leaf crops: Asian greens (Choi Sum, Gai Lan, Mibuna, Mizuna, Pak Choy, Chinese Cabbage), Cress, Lettuce, Mustard greens, Witlof, Chicory. Brassica crops (seedlings)*: Broccoli Raab, Cabbage, Kale, Spinach. Root crops: Radish. Legume crops: Broad Beans, Snow peas, Peas. Onion family: Onions, Salad onion, Potato onions, Tree onions. Perennial Herbs: Artichoke, Asparagus crowns, Strawberry plants

Stay warm and make use of your planning time!

The next Sustainable Living Workshop is on Thursday 13/7/23, 10-11.30am at the Dardanup Hall. Topic for July: Topic: Fruit Trees and Food Forests - Come along and learn how to create a beautiful edible space, regardless of the size. Not sure what trees will grow in your area? Maybe you have a few trees that have gone a bit 'wild'. Never fear, help is on hand. Come along as we learn How to Prune for productivity, demystify fertilising and control pests organically. There foundations of research seeking better medical care for cancer. Then there are charities that support sufferers, and added to that others that seek to inform and screen.

The club channels some of the funds we raise through all of these and the latest we are electing to help is Solaris Care in Bunbury. Solaris Care support and care about cancer sufferers in the non-medical aspects. We have donated $1000 to them. Our support of the Lions Skin Cancer Screening Service Bus adds prevention because early detection avoids the spread of cancer cells.

An information night is being planned with men in mind - Prostate Cancer. Right now a committee of Lions is working on plans to do something different to bring good information in a social setting for the local and outlying areas. Watch this space.

Visitor Centre News

The days are getting longer! Summer is on its way! Have you noticed? 😊

Attendance at the Visitors Centre seems completely dependent on the weather, particularly during the weekend - a lovely sunny winters day brings day trippers out & tourists away from the fire & their books & cups of milo into the green beautiful valley to drive, eat & explore. Come & join them & pop into the VC for Tshirts gifts or just to chat.

Our artist for July is Denise Gillies: Traditional printmaking is her primary passion, but in recent years mixed media works have become increasingly important in her art practice. Working from her new studio in Burekup, Denise uses a variety of printmaking and mixed media techniques to create artworks that explore the passing of time, the environment and our impact on it.

In addition to framed artworks, she also produces a range of art accessories all showcasing her latest original art and designs. These products include scarves, bags, coasters, socks, cushion covers, cards and boxes as well as unique handmade jewellery items. These make perfect gifts.

Her work is lovely as are others, so come & have a browse.

DELIVERING FOR OUR COMMUNITY

Authorised by J Hanns, 78 Forrest Street, Collie WA 6225

On Friday 9th June, Dardanup Primary School participated in Ahlia's Kindness Day. We raised $355 towards children's brain cancer research. Our students all performed random acts of kindness including making muffins, being kind to each other, a free lunch donated by our P&C and a whole school disco.

What an amazing community we have.

THOMMO'S COMMUNITY GARDEN INC.

152 Robertson Drive, Glen Iris
 Thommo's is a not for profit organisation run by volunteers who grow and donate about 100kg of fresh organically grown fruit and vegetables to Foodbank in Bunbury each week. We are able to do this by leasing 50 (4x2m) garden beds to Community groups, schools, families and individuals to grow their own produce, and with the support of local businesses.

Due to the increased demand by Foodbank we need more volunteers.....Can you help? A couple of hours or a morning a week? Horticultural/market garden experience a bonus, but not essential.

We are preparing for an Open Day on 18th November this year so please come visit our garden. It is amazing! Please contact Lisa ferrislisa338@gmail.com for more information.

GREEN DOOR WINES
Elise Payne Music - Saturday, July 1st @12.45

Elise Payne will join us at the cellar door on Saturday, July 1st for a relaxed afternoon of views, wine and acoustic tunes!

Originally from Boyanup, Elise started singing and playing guitar around the age of 10, before starting to play at various markets, shows and festivals by age 12. Since then, she has played at many venues in the Southwest, including here at Green Door a few times over the last couple years.

Her music style varies quite a bit, often going from playing the classics that everyone knows and loves, to chill acoustic songs and even some country.

Excerpt from the Dardanup Heritage Collective Website
 The Dardanup Roads Board

Early settlers often built and took care of local roads by choosing suitable tracks and filling ruts caused by carts, sometimes building their own bridges. Soon they joined forces to petition the government to build bridges and provide funds for road work. From 1860 permanent Roads Committees were formed, set up under Government authority to recommend and supervise repairs to official roads. They had the power to organise road repairs by cooperation between settlers but not to levy local settlers for funds to do repairs. From 1871 the Roads Districts Act set up elective Road Boards. Until 1894, the roads of the whole Wellington District were in the care of the Wellington Roads Board, encompassing Bunbury and a rural district extending from the Upper Preston, Capel, the Harvey River and the southern half of "The Coast" north from Australind, thus including Dardanup. At a public meeting in 1893 it was agreed to divide the district into Bunbury (roads five miles from the town) and Wellington, which remained unchanged. However, the argument continued regarding the lines for division. In June 1894 the Government proclaimed the new district of Bunbury and the first Bunbury Roads Board was elected in August with Thomas Hayward as Chairman. The Wellington Roads Board was then re-constituted. The Dardanup-Ferguson-Boyanup area was represented by Thomas Maguire, J Hough, Forbes Fee and A. Shivers. Residents petitioned for a further split, along the line of the Collie River, into north and south districts. The southern district was to remain Wellington, and the northern to become Brunswick or Harvey. The Under Secretary of Lands, Cecil Clifton, suggested Brunswick and Dardanup and this was agreed at the Wellington Roads Board meeting on November 10 1894. (Staples, 1979, pp. 212-214).
